

President's Ambassadors Application

Mission

The President's Ambassador's mission is to provide Cincinnati State Technical and Community College with student leaders to serve the needs of the College and the community. The student volunteers participate in campus events throughout the year. These activities educate and expand prospective student awareness of educational programs offered at Cincinnati State. This club develops relationships with students, faculty, and staff, along with leadership skills that will support students in a diverse job market.

Purpose

The President's Ambassadors are a diverse group of students who help prospective students, families, and the community understand the benefits of pursuing an education at Cincinnati State. Ambassadors serve as role models and representatives of the College by communicating the mission, vision, and culture of the College. They also assist in campus events and share their knowledge and experiences of Cincinnati State.

Qualifications

President's Ambassadors must have the following qualifications to be eligible to apply:

- Provide a letter of recommendation from a Faculty Member.
- Be currently and continually enrolled in a minimum of six credit hours at Cincinnati State.
- Possess and maintain a minimum of a 2.5 GPA in all college academic work.
- Learn and demonstrate a basic knowledge of Cincinnati State's various aspects and resources, including, but not limited to, admissions, financial aid, academics, and student services.
- Ability to work with a diverse student population.
- Demonstrate effective communication skills along with strong interpersonal skills.
- Exhibit leadership, initiative, organization, responsibility, and respect.
- Post 5 times per week on social media.
- Participate in 2 events per month.
